LONDINI,
In ædibus Henrici Bynnemani, per assignationem Richardi Huttoni.
Cum Priuilegio Regiæ Maiestatis.

AD HONORATISS. COMITEM LEICESTRIAE in Clypeum suum Gentilitium.

Quot clypeos atauûm, clypeo coniungis in vno,
Tot tibi virtutes atauûm sunt pectore iuncta:
Somerij pietas, vis imperterrita Greij,
Intemerata fides Hastingi, nobile pectus
Ferrarij, Quinci probitas, bonitásque Boghani,
Martia Talbotti virtus, fidißima dextra
Beauchampi, Herculei mens inconcussa Guidonis,
Barklai vigor, & generosa modestia Lisli.

Illustrisſimo nobilisſimóq; viro, Domino Roberto Dudleio, Leiceſtriæ Comiti, Baroni de Denbygh, ordinis tum S. Georgij tum S. Michaëlis, Equiti aurato, Regiæ Maieſtatis a ſacris Conſilijs, equorum Magiſtro, academiæ Oxon. Cancellario, maximo literarum literatorúmq; Patrono, fœliciſſimum rerum omnium euentum & incrementum.

DVæ, eæq; præcipuæ ſiue cardinales cauſſæ, quarum altera generalis, altera verò ſpecialis, impulerunt me hominem gregarium, tibi Comes illuſtriſſime, hoc trium linguarum Lexicon nuncupare. Prima, eáq; generalis; conſuetudo, ſeu mos patrius: propterea quod & eſt & fuit multis iam retrò ſeculis crebro vſu receptum; vt vnumquodq; opus inſigne & elaboratum, alium atq; alium ſui commodum patronum nanciſceretur; qui illud aduerſus virulentam liuidorum conuitiatorum colluuiem (quorum numerus, gliſcente iam æmulatione, & graſſante inuidia, etiam inter contemptiſſimi ordinis homulos, auctiſſimus) æneo vt aiunt muro protegeret atq; tueretur.

Altera eſt officij ratio; cuius ſuaſu adductus ſpero, vt quemadmodum varia variorum authorum volumina, cùm propter inuentionis raritatem præclara, tùm argumenti elegantiam commendatiſſima, ſub inclyto nobiliſſimi nominis tui titulo anteactis temporibus euolarunt, inq; placidiſſima tua tutela acquieuerunt; præcipuè verò Theſaurus ille Latinæ linguæ, & verborum copia ditiſſimus, & phraſium delectu fœliciſſimus, a R. in Chriſto patre D. D. Copero, bonarum literarum remis inſtructiſſimo inchoatus, & ab eodem perpolitus, qui ſumma cum gratia & ſecundo flatu ſub Honoris tui clientela emanauit: ita Lexicon hoc trilingue, propitio fauoris tui vento promouente, in publicum prodire non vereatur.

Nunc verò Honoratiſſime, inſtituto meo honeſto omni ex parte ſeſe aperiente, & ſua quaſi viſcera fodicante, ne quidquam intùs inuiſum deliteſceret; opus ipſum (pro meritorum magnitudine & numero) ſuas laudes habere debet aggregatas. Quod quidem importuna neceſſitas neutiquam videtur exigere, cùm ſui ipſius præco vocaliſſimus ſit, nec alio quoquam tybicine indigeat, qui inflatis buccis eius encomia perſonare aggrediatur: ídque multis multíſq; nominibus.

Primò, quòd illud vocabularium (vt ita dicam licèt duriuſculè) inceptum, coagmentatum, & in iuſtam ſeriem digeſtum fuit, annis bis decem iam elapſis, ab homine quidem iudicio nequaquam ieiuno, nec eruditione aut ſcientia exſangui; nempè D. Guilielmo Morelio Pariſienſi, Regióq; in Græcis typographo. Deinde, quòd non ſit fœtus informis, mancus, mutilus aut luxatus; ſed multorum annorum partus, iuſto temporis interuallo perfectus, ſymmetricus, & Iunone Lucina manū admouente in ſolem emiſſus. Adhæc, quòd ſit opus exterum & tranſmarinum: nouimus autem domeſticas merces non æquè gratas eſſe atq; alienas longè accerſitas; ea eſt indolis noſtræ lubricitas, multiplexq; morum flexus. Præterea, quòd methodus & ordo, quem in isto cōstruendo & aceruando classicus hic noster author sectatus est, non tam procliuis & obuius quàm vtilis & quæstuosus sit, etiam tyrunculis ipsis, & Musarum (si ita loqui liceat) mammothreptis; quorum exilia cerebella aliquo certo & præsentaneo adiuuamine releuanda sunt. Deniq; & summatim, quòd meritò appellari possit Verborum omnium promptuarium: cùm in id congestum sit quicquid antehæc fuerat alijs quam plurimis Dictionarijs inconcessum.

Quæ vniuersa suscepta & ad exitus optatos tandem aliquando (annuente Diuino numine) perducta sunt, quorundam quidem sudore & algore non modico, laboréque indefesso, aliorúmq; sumptibus & impensis ter maximis erogatis. Quorum cura & solicitudo in hoc frequens erat, vt cùm centrum attingeret, cuilibet oculato & emunctissimæ naris lectori (quoad poterit) arrideret, placeret, satisfaceret. Quodquidem fore non est desperandum, etiamsi illud fatum, quod Ouidius Naso suis tristiculis elegijs (ni malè memini) accidisse conqueritur, huic vel maximè competere videatur:

Ablatum medijs opus est incudibus istud.

Typographus enim, qui dum superstes fuerat, maiori parti, vltra vmbelicum, speciosam formam induxerat, tandem dura dirarum Parcarum lege sublatus vltimum diem clausit, eóque pacto sub prelo gemens reliquit inchoatum. Hinc factum esse nonnulli suspicantur, imò (pace sua dixerim) somniant, non eam in posterioribus operam nauatam esse, quæ in prioribus fuerat: quibus venia danda est vt cum ratione insaniant. Verùm enimuerò, istud volumen acutus quilibet, modestus tamen, talisque, cuius lingua præceps non anteuertat tardum ingenium, penitiùs introspiciat, ad trutinam reuocet, exploret, pensiculetur: ego tacitus meam ferre sententiam (cùm in sua caussa nemo debet esse vel ordinarius vel delegatus vel arbitrarius iudex) libentissimè desistam, nec quidquam interponam, præter ea quæ a me superiùs satis enucleatè sunt enunciata.

Interim illustrissime Comes, hoc opus, quantum quantum, totum nominis tui celebritati consecro, cui vt patrocineris hoc tempore flagito, animum meum neutiquam despondens, vt quemadmodum læta & exporrecta fronte istud accipere dignatus fueris, ita (patrocinij tui beneficio) existimatio eiusdem erit geminata. Et quamuis sua ipsius arte amplos aditus ad laudem præmunire possit; Nobilitas tamen nominis tui eos efficiet & latiores & lautiores; plusque gratiæ apud omnes qui mansuetiorum Musarum studio flagrant huic conciliabit.

Honori tuo obsequentissimus

Richardus Huttonus.

QVID HIS COMMENTARIIS CONTINEATVR, QVÆQVE CONSCRIBENDI EOS RATIO INITA SIT.

Accentum in singulis, lineæ aut rectæ acutum, aut flexæ circunflexum indicant, si voces duas syllabas exuperent. Nam dissyllabas aut monosyllabas notis insignire, superuacanei operis fuisset ac inutilis, cùm dissyllabas omnes nemo nesciat, qui vel prima rudimenta Grammatices didicerit, priori syllaba pro quantitatis ratione intendendas esse vel inflectendas. Monosyllabæ, accentum ita penes se retineant, vt qua parte notari debeat, nemo dubitare possit. Quòd enim aduerbia grauis accentus nota quidam signarunt, vt à nominibus distinguerent, id fecerunt, non vt aliter quàm accentuum ratio postulat, pronunciandas indicarent.

Quanta quæque syllaba sit, longáne an breuis, cùm ex regulis illis Grammaticorum, de positione quam appellant, déque syllaba ante syllabam, tum ex accentu notato facilè quiuis intelligat. Quæ enim syllaba circunflexa nota pingitur, ea omnis longa ex eo perspicitur, quæque statim sequitur, breuis. Quæ autem in antepenultima vox accentus acuti signo impressa est, ea penultimam necesse est habeat breuem. Syllabarum vltimarum quantitatem ex breuibus & paucis Grammaticorum præceptis cognoscere non difficile cuiuis fuerit. Syllabarum reliquarum quanta quæque sit, statim indicatur his notis pr. sec. tert. quart. quint. br. vel long. vel anc. quibus primam syllabam, secundam, tertiam, quartam, quintam, breuem, aut longam, aut ancipitem intelligi volumus.

Inflexionem genitiuus cuique nomini participióue subiectus, terminationes adiectiuis, personæ præteritáque ac supina itémque infinitiui verbis, demonstrant, vt quotæ declinationis nomina & participia sint, quotæ coniugationis verba, sine negocio puer intelligere possit.

Indeclinabiles alias orationis partes, notatis singularum classibus agnoscas, aut aduerbia, aut coniunctiones, aut præpositiones, aut interiectiones esse.

Genera nominum designantur, masculina his literis m.g. fœminina, f.g. neutralia his, n.g. Trium generum, duarum subiectione terminationum, aut vnius cum pronomine Hoc, quo modo id genus Grammatici notarunt: si qua sint communis generis his literis, comm. g. si dubij quod epicœnum vocant, his, m. vel f. g. siquando notis his plures adiungantur literæ, nihil plus quàm singulæ significant.

Casus præcipuè genitiuus additus est, quòd ex eo & recto qui præcedit, reliqui deriuentur, vt inde totam facilè seriem euoluere possis.

De temporibus verborum, potissimùm præteritum præsenti subijcitur, inde futurum si quod sit, mox infinitiui præsens: quod præsenti verbi præteritóque cognito, quæ tempora inde, qui qui modi formari poßint, peruium sit cuiuis elicere. Infinitiui penultima coniugationis quota verbum sit ostendit. si sit A, primæ: E longum, & ideo circunflexo notatum, secundæ: E breue, tertiæ: I quartæ coniugationis verbum esse significatur.

Si quod nomen mutilum defectúmue numero singulari, aut casibus fuerit, siue verbum modis aut temporibus, itidem declaratur, si singularis numerus nomini desit, pluralis numeri duntaxat nomen esse his literis, plur. num. sin casus aliqui, quotquot in vsu sunt, adscribuntur. Si verbo vel modi desint, vel personæ, quæ vsitata sunt indicantur, aut in genere, verb. impers. id est verbum impersonale esse dicitur.

Post eam literaturæ singularum partium orationis accuratam explicationem, eius auctoris inter Latinos præcipui, qui voce sit ea vsus, nominis appellatio consequitur. Locum vbi sit ea vsus, ne longius opus foret, citare non est visum: si quando liber recudetur, vnde quæque desumpta sint, & explicatiora omnia, tum aperientur.

Græcanicis vocibus, quæ Latinis respondent subditæ, articulos, si nomina sint, pronomina vel participia: futura & præterita, si verba, coniunximus, vt in vsum suum pueri faciliùs conuertere inflectereque possint.

Si quando pluribus Græcis Latinam vocem vnam exposuerimus, id fecit aut varia eius significatio, aut linguæ Græcæ copiosa oratio. Quanquam si alterutrius omnes per se partes spectaueris, alteri vtranque copia reperias antecellere. Quas enim res populi frequentiores tractarunt, in ijs appellandis designandísque, copiosiores sint consentaneum est, ijs qui aut nunquam aut rarius illas attigerunt.

In exemplis sententiarum colligendis, Græcéque mox explicandis, rationem eam iniuimus, quæ & innumeros labores in quærendo nobis imposuerit, & vt diutius hoc opus morati fuerimus, effecerit. Nam cùm viderem quotquot hactenus hoc genus librorum conscripserint ita rem peregisse, vt si quid orationis iuncta Græcè redditum vellent, de suis ipsorum verbis sine vllius probati auctoris exemplo reddidissent, quo plerunque fiebat vt ne recta quidem locutio esset: ne id mihi quoque tale quidpiam meditanti vsu veniret, ita mihi cauendum censui, si & ea quæ veteres scriptores Latini de Græcis transtulissent, perquirerem, & in suas quæque classes distribuerem: quæ res proculdubio quanti laboris, quantarum vigiliarum molestiarúmque plena sit, ij duntaxat norunt, qui in ea versati sunt.

Itaque Ciceronis inprimis de Græcis Epicuri, Stoicorúmque & aliorum eius generis philosophorum versa, mihi sumpsi: quæ dum non tam multa essent vt ad propositum opus satis futura viderentur, ad alios transeundum fuit, ad Plinium, Varronem, Columellam, Liuium, & cæteros eius generis, vt quicquid è Græcis transtulissent, in meum hunc vsum conuerterem.

His nondum contentus, si quid è Latinis Græcè versum esset, inuestigandum censui. occurrerunt quærenti satis multa in ijs commentarijs de re Rustica, quæ γεωπονικὰ inscribuntur. Accessere quæ recentiores Græcè sunt interpretati: Ciceronis de Senectute, quã Gaza vertit: Somnium Scipionis, ex lib. Ciceronis de Rep. & Metamorphosis Ouidiana, quæ Maximus Planudes de Latinis Græca fecit, vtrunque tamen oratione prosa. nam quòd Somnium Scipionis perperàm Gazæ tribuatur, veteres codices manu scripti testantur: in quibus non modo id Somnium, verum etiam tota Macrobij eius somnij explicatio Græca continetur, Maximóque Planudi adscribitur.

In vnius vocabuli explicatione, siquando iunctarum orationum exempla citantur, in ijs fieri non potuit quin multa simul alia exponerentur, præsertim vbi plura, quò res melius intelligatur, verba veteris alicuius auctoris citantur. Itaque paraueram indicem παρασιχάδιων, vt Græci appellant, λέξεων, quem emissurus eram huius voluminis appendicem, nisi mihi à quibusdam esset persuasum, vt eum cum Græcarum Gallicarúmque vocum indicibus, quos edendos habeo, coniungerem: partim ne libri moles nimium cresceret, partim ne plures indices eòdem pertinentes, ineptius disiungerentur. Eam enim magnitudinem, tres vel etiam fortè plures ij indices complebunt, quæ vel iustum volumen esse poßit.
